MUR 4885

RESPONSE OF THE REPUBLICAN NATIONAL COMMITTEE TO THE SUBPOENA TO PRODUCE DOCUMENTS AND ORDER TO SUBMIT WRITTEN ANSWERS

The Republican National Committee ("RNC") hereby responds to the Subpoena to Produce Documents and Order to Submit Written Answers issued by the Federal Election Commission ("Commission") in the above-referenced matter. Pursuant to the Commission's Instructions and Document Requests and Interrogatories, the discovery request is limited to documents and information from February 1, 1995 to present, relating to the April 3, 1995 combined $15,000 contribution made to the RNC by Mr. Gary G. Jacobs and his wife.

It should also be noted that the RNC has redacted certain non-responsive portions of documents that it is submitting to the Commission. The RNC assures the Commission that these redacted areas do not include information requested by the Commission in the above-referenced matter.

Furthermore, although the Commission's Subpoena and Order reference an attachment of "March 27, 1998 Correspondence from Haley R. Barbour (1 page)," the RNC did not receive the referenced attachment. Since the RNC could not take into account said attachment when formulating its response, the RNC hereby reserves the right to supplement its response after receiving the attachment in question from the Commission.

WRITTEN ANSWERS

A. Concerning the solicitation of the contribution:

1. The solicitation was made by Mr. Wayne Berman, a member of the 1995 RNC Gala Committee, during a January, 1995 "phone day" pledge drive at the Willard Hotel in Washington, D.C. Mr. Berman telephoned Mr. Jacobs to ask him for a contribution to the Gala.

2. Mr. Berman appears to have received fundraising credit for the April, 1995 contribution from Mr. Jacobs.
3. The RNC has no responsive documents in regard to this request. However, the RNC is providing a copy of a 1995 RNC Gala invitation to the Commission. The RNC is not aware of whether Mr. Jacobs was sent such an invitation.

B. Concerning the making of the contribution:

1. A $15,000 commitment was made by Mr. Jacobs to Mr. Berman in January, 1995.
2. The RNC is not certain whether the contribution was transmitted or forwarded by mail or by hand, although it believes the contribution would have been transmitted or forwarded by mail. The contribution from Mr. Jacobs was received in April, 1995, in response to an earlier fundraising drive for the 1995 RNC Gala. The 1995 RNC Gala was held on February 9, 1995 at the Washington Convention Center, 900 9th Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. The contribution was neither solicited nor received at the Gala event.
3. The RNC is not aware of who actually transmitted or forwarded the contribution, and it is not aware of who actually received the contribution at the RNC.
4. Included in the responsive documents are a daily deposit summary sheet, a deposit ticket, a source document containing a copy of Mr. Jacobs' check, a thank you letter for the contribution, a document listing Laredo National Bank under the name Wayne Berman, and general donor information records pertaining to Mr. Jacobs. A copy of a 1995 RNC Gala invitation is also included.

C. Identify all persons who provided any information or assistance used in the preparation of the responses to these questions and document requests. For each person identified, state for which question or document request the information or assistance was used.

For the Commission's requests pertaining to this matter, the RNC Counsel's Office coordinated with the following individuals to organize responsive information and to respond to each of the Commission's questions: Ms. Patty Luther (Director of Membership Services), Ms. Laurie Prysock (Director of Republican Eagles), Ms. Beverly Shea (Deputy Director of Finance), Ms. Janice Knopp (Deputy Director of Finance), Mr. Wayne Berman (Republican fundraiser), Ms. Paige Lance (Southern Representative of Republican Eagles), and Mr. Steve Ellis (Director of Computer Services). Each of these individuals can be contacted through the Counsel's Office of the RNC.

Respectfully Submitted,

Thomas J. Josefak
Counsel for the Republican National Committee

Dear Gary:

On behalf of all of us here at the Republican National Committee, thank you for renewing your membership dues of $15,000 in the Republican Eagles. We are honored to have your continued participation in the Eagles program.

As an Eagle you are recognized nationwide as a member of one of the most distinguished and celebrated group of Republicans. The financial support and leadership you bring to our entire Party at all levels of government display a rare level of commitment for which we are deeply indebted.

In addition, continuing your Eagles membership gives you unique opportunities to renew old ties and develop new friendships with other Republican leaders from the political and business communities who share your extraordinary commitment to our Party and our nation's future.

Your Eagles membership is effective for a full twelve months and entitles you to all the benefits we have designed specifically to honor individuals of your caliber, and offers you a full range of social and business activities with your fellow members and the leaders of our Party.

I look forward to seeing you at our next national meeting or regional Eagles event, and thanking you personally for your continuing generosity to the Eagle program.

On behalf of the entire Party, please know how much I appreciate your commitment to the Republican Eagles. We are honored to have you join us as we continue to strengthen our Party in the 1996 presidential election cycle.

Very truly yours,

Halley Barbour

Please identify yourself as a member of the Republican Eagles when calling.

Membership in the Republican Eagles

Twenty years ago, President Gerald R. Ford and the National Republican Party created an entirely new way for individuals to participate in the political process. As the first and most prestigious political support organization of its kind, the Republican Eagles sustained the Party through its most difficult years and laid the foundations which led to Ronald Reagan's landslide victory in 1980.

From the beginning, Republican Eagles have remained steadfast in their commitment to the principles and ideals of our Party and our candidates at all levels throughout America. The Republican Party gratefully acknowledges a tremendous debt of gratitude for the crucial role the Republican Eagles played in the dramatic resurgence of the Republican Party this year and the largest mid-term election majority sweep of this century.

No membership organization within the Republican Party enjoys a greater tradition of excellence and a more prominent position of honor and respect than the Republican Eagles.

Benefits of Eagle Membership

Befitting its unequalled stature within our Party, exclusive activities are reserved solely for the Republican Eagles.

National Meetings — Each year Eagles receive invitations to four national meetings. At least two of these meetings take place in Washington, D.C. and feature strategy sessions with prominent elected Party leaders from the U.S. Senate and House. Other participants have included Republican Presidents, Governors and former Administration officials.

In addition to the historic Republican Inaugural in February, upcoming events in 1995 include the Annual Eagles' Cup golf and tennis classic in Palm Springs in April, a '96 election year strategy meeting in Washington in July and the Eagles 20th Anniversary Black-tie Gala in Washington in October Regional Meetings and Special Events — Regional events and meetings are held across the country that allow Eagles to introduce friends and prospective members to the Republican Eagles program in a more private setting. Recently, Eagle members have participated in many special GOP events including the 1994 RNC Annual Gala with President Ronald Reagan and Lady Margaret Thatcher, a live broadcast of GOP/TV's Rising Tide at Paramount Studios and a Foreign Policy Forum with Henry Kissinger, James Baker, Jeane Kirkpatrick and Dick Cheney.

International Trade Missions — In the past seven years, the Eagles have participated in three economic and trade missions in Europe and Asia. The Eagles have been welcomed enthusiastically by heads of state including Premier Li Peng of the People's Republic of China and King Carl XVI Gustaf of Sweden, high-ranking government and business officials in London, Paris, Budapest, Vienna, Beijing, Taipei and Hong Kong. In each city, members participated in political and economic briefings, diplomatic events and national celebrations and were introduced to the historical and cultural riches of some of the most exciting and beautiful cities in the world.

RNC Updates — Eagles receive regular updates from the RNC Chairman offering talking points and briefing materials on Congressional and Administration legislative initiatives. The Eagles' newsletter, the RNC's Rising Tide publication and a broadcast fax system keep members abreast of political and campaign activities.

Republican Eagles are assigned their own Regional Representative in Washington, who may be contacted with questions regarding Eagles membership, additional benefits and upcoming activities at (202) 863-8720.

Membership in Team 100

Since its inception in 1988, Team 100 has been the premier fundraising arm of the Republican Party. Its members form a special group and enjoy a unique relationship with the Party's leadership. Through their leadership and commitment, Team 100's mission is to raise the necessary funds to help insure Republican victories. To accomplish this, our members contribute to the political process by contributing their ideas, finances and time to the Republican Party.

Building on momentum from the 1994 elections, the Republican Party must take advantage of the tremendous opportunity in 1996. Our Republican Presidential candidate will depend on Team 100 expertise and resources to help formulate the strategy for winning the 1996 election.

Benefits of Team 100 Membership

Team 100 members enjoy a full package of membership benefits. Events throughout the United States and abroad are planned and designed to give Team 100 members the greatest opportunity possible to meet and talk informally with 1996 Presidential candidates, Party leaders, foreign dignitaries and special guests. Membership includes:

National and Regional Meetings – These meetings feature working business sessions, strategy sessions, and fundraising updates. Past meeting participants have included: Gerald R. Ford, Bob Dole, Phil Gramm, Jack Kemp, Dick Cheney, Margaret Thatcher, Lamar Alexander, Steve Merrill, Pete Wilson, Bill Weld, John Engler, and other Republican leaders.

Team 100's upcoming events in 1995 are:
Aspen Ski Trip, Aspen, Colorado (February 17-20);
National Spring Meeting, Washington, D.C. (May 2).

International Business Meetings – In recent years, Team 100 members have enjoyed a variety of exclusive business missions abroad. The 1994 East Asia Trade Mission included meetings in Taipei, Hong Kong, Guilin, Shanghai, Xian and Beijing. Other meetings have been held in Rome, Paris, Moscow, St. Petersburg, Prague, Vienna, Warsaw and Madrid. Team 100's stature enables us to meet with some of the highest ranking government and business officials while traveling internationally.

Membership Guidelines

Team 100 membership requires a $100,000 commitment upon joining and every four years thereafter. A $25,000 contribution is required in each of the intervening three years. Team 100 members may contribute with a personal or corporate check or a combination of the two.

Questions regarding Team 100 membership or upcoming activities may be directed to the Team 100 office at (202) 863-8720
